Senator Mengden offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend S.B. 146 by striking the period at the end of Subdivision (14) in quoted Article 2.12 of Section 1 and adding the following:

“, but the survivors of these investigators are not entitled to benefits provided under Chapter 86, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended, (Article 6228f, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes).”

The amendment was read and was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mengden and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform to the body of the bill as amended.

S.B. 501 (Mauzy) Relating to automobile salvage dealers. (31-0)(31-0)

Senator Mauzy offered the following committee amendment to the bill:

Amend S.B. 501 by striking all below the enacting clause and substituting the following:

Section 1. Section 1, Chapter 506, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 1961, as amended (Article 6687-2, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes), is amended to read as follows:

“Art. 6687-2. Automobile Salvage Dealers ~~[Dealer in vehicles for scrap, resale of parts or salvage, surrender of unexpired license plates or certificates]~~

(a) In this article:

(1) “Automobile Salvage Dealer” means an individual, corporation, association, partnership, organization, or other entity engaged in the business of obtaining abandoned, wrecked, or junked motor vehicles or motor vehicle parts for scrap disposal, resale, repairing, rebuilding, demolition, or other form of salvage.

(2) "Major Component Part" means the front end assembly or tail section of an automobile, the cab of a truck (light or heavy), or the bed of a one ton or lighter truck.

(3) "Front End Assembly" means the hood, right and left front fender, grill, bumper, radiator, and radiator support, if two or more such parts are assembled together as one unit.

(4) "Tail Section" means the roof, floor pan, right and left rear quarter panel, deck lid, and rear bumper, if two or more of such parts are assembled together as one unit.

(b) An automobile salvage dealer, upon receipt of a motor vehicle described in (a), shall immediately remove any unexpired license plates from the motor vehicle and place them in a secure, locked place. ~~[Any person, association of persons, corporate or other, who customarily engage in the business of obtaining motor vehicles for scrap disposal or resale of parts therefrom or any other form of salvage, shall immediately remove any unexpired license plates from such motor vehicle and place the same under lock and key.]~~ An inventory list of such plates showing the license number and the make and motor number of the motor vehicle from which such plates were removed shall be maintained on forms to be furnished by the State Highway Department. Upon demand the license plates and inventory lists shall be surrendered to the State Highway Department for cancellation. It is further provided that all Certificates of Title covering such motor vehicles obtained for scrap disposal, resale of parts or any other form of salvage shall, upon demand, be surrendered to the State Highway Department for cancellation. It shall thereafter be the duty of the State Highway Department to furnish a signed receipt for the surrendered license plates and Certificates of Title.

(c) An automobile salvage dealer shall keep an accurate and legible inventory of each major component part purchased by or delivered to him, as follows:

- (1) Date of purchase or delivery;
- (2) Name, age, address, sex, and driver's license number of the seller;
- (3) The license number of the motor vehicle used to deliver the major component part;
- (4) A complete description of the item purchased;
- (5) The vehicle identification number of the motor vehicle from which a major component part was removed.

(d) In lieu of the requirements contained in (c), an automobile salvage dealer may record the name of the dismantler and the Texas Certificate of Inventory number.

(e) An automobile salvage dealer shall keep all records required to be kept by this article for one year after the date of sale or disposal of the item and he shall allow an inspection of the records by a peace officer at any reasonable time. A peace officer may inspect the inventory on the premises of the automobile salvage dealer in order to verify, check, or audit the records. An automobile salvage dealer shall allow and shall not interfere with a full and complete inspection by a peace officer of the inventory, premises, and records of the dealer.

(f) A peace officer may seize, hold, and dispose of according to the Code of Criminal Procedure a motor vehicle or part thereof which has been stolen or which has been altered so as to remove, change, mutilate, or obliterate a permanent vehicle identification number, derivative number, motor number, or serial number.

(g) A person who fails to comply with any provision of this article or violates a provision of this article commits a Class A misdemeanor. ~~[Any person violating any provision of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or by confinement in the county jail not less than ten (10) days nor more than one (1) year, or by both such fine and confinement.]~~

Sec. 2. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both Houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The committee amendment was read and was adopted.

Senator Mauzy offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend C.S.S.B. 501, Section 1(e) by adding the following:

“at any reasonable time” after the word “dealer” in line 1 page 3.

The amendment was read and was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mauzy and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform to the body of the bill as amended.

S.B. 1185 (Meier) Relating to the appointment of County Auditors in certain counties. (31-0)(31-0)

Senator Meier offered the following amendment to the bill:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to the appointment of county auditors in certain counties, their terms of office, and compensation; amending Article 1645, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. Article 1645, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

“Article 1645. (a) In any county having a population of 35,000 inhabitants or over according to the last preceding Federal Census, or having a tax valuation of $15,000,000, except those counties covered by Subsection (b) of this article, or over according to the last approved tax rolls, there shall be appointed every two years an auditor of accounts and finances, the title of said office to be County Auditor, who shall hold his office for two years and who shall receive as compensation for his services an annual salary from the County General Fund of not more than the amount allowed or paid the Assessor-Collector of Taxes in his county, such salary of the County Auditor to be fixed and determined by the District Judge or District Judges making such appointment and having jurisdiction in the county, a majority ruling, said annual salary to be paid monthly out of the General Fund of the county. The action of the District Judge or District Judges in determining and fixing the salary of the County Auditor shall be made by order and recorded in the minutes of the District Court of the county and the Clerk thereof shall certify the same for observance to the Commissioners Court which shall cause the same to be recorded in its minutes.

"(b) In any county having a population of 700,000 inhabitants or more but less than 800,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census and having a tax valuation of $15,000,000 or over according to the last approved tax rolls, there shall be appointed every two years an auditor of accounts and finances, the title of said office to be County Auditor, who shall hold his office for two years and who shall receive as compensation for his services an annual salary from the County General Fund to be fixed and determined by the District Judge or District Judges making such appointment and having jurisdiction in the county, a majority ruling, said annual salary to be paid monthly out of the General Fund of the county. The action of the District Judge or District Judges in determining and fixing the salary of the County Auditor shall be made by order and recorded in the minutes of the District Court of the county and the Clerk thereof shall certify the same for observance to the Commissioners Court which shall cause the same to be recorded in its minutes."

Sec. 2. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The amendment was read and was adopted.
